By the Lords Juſtices,

Parker C. Kent C. P. S. Holles Newcaſtle, Roxburghe, J. Craggs.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS this preſent Parliament ſtands Prorogued to the firſt Day of October next, we, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council do hereby publiſh and declare, that the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further Prorogued on the ſaid firſt Day of October next, to Monday the three and twentieth Day of November next; and we have given Order, that a Commiſſion be prepared for Proroguing the ſame accordingly. And we do hereby further declare his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid three and twentieth Day of November next, be held, and ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners of Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter on the ſaid three and twentieth Day of November next.

Given at Whitehall, the Twenty ninth Day of September 1719, in the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

God ſave the KING.

From on Board the Barfleur in Vado Bay, Sept. 19. Sir George Byng ſtays here, expecting the Imperial Troops that are marching from the Milaneze, the laſt Column of which will be here on the 23d. It is propoſed to get them imbarked and to ſail with them as ſoon as poſſible for Melazzo. The Cannon, Ammunition and Proviſions, are already ſhipped. Twenty four heavy Pieces of Cannon, with a good Quantity of Powder and Ball, were ſome Days ago ſent away by Sir George Byng to Melazzo, for General Mercy.

Mont-Louis, Sept. 19. The Marſhal Berwick goes from hence to Day to Puycerda, where he will ſtay for the coming up of his Cannon, and from thence march to Ciudad d'Urgel ſix Leagues further, in order to make the Siege of that Caſtle. The Catalans expreſs great Deſire to ſee the Marſhal enter their Country with his Forces. There are Parties of them in Arms in Favour of France all over the Province, which make Incurſions as far as the Ebro, from whence they ſent hither on the 17th two Mails which they had intercepted going from Tortoſa to Madrid.

Puycerda, Sept. 23. The Badneſs of the Roads through the Mountains, has rendred the Paſſage for the Artillery to Urgel very difficult and tedious. It got laſt Night within three Leagues of that Place, ſo that 'tis reckoned it will arrive before the Caſtle on the 25th, where the Marſhal Berwick intends to be at the ſame Time, in order to begin that Siege, which is believed cannot laſt above five or ſix Days. Then he propoſes to take Berga a little Caſtle, where is a Garriſon of about 120 Men. Theſe two Places he propoſes to be Maſter of by the Time of the Arrival of the French Gallies at Port Cette, and will then proceed to other Military Operations. In the mean Time he has ordered all his Horſe, and a great Body of Foot, to begin their March directly for Perpignan. The Marſhal has left ſome Troops at St. Jean Pied de Port, St. Sebaſtian, and Fontarabia; and has on this Side about 70 Squadrons and 47 Battalions.

Stockholm, Sept. 9. O. S. Admiral Norris arrived with the Fleet at the Dahlers the 26th of laſt Month. On the 27th his Excellency the Lord Carteret went on board him with the Prince of Heſſe, who was treated magnificently. On the 30th the Admiral came to this City, where he was received by the Queen and by his Royal Highneſs with great Honours. On the 3d Inſtant the Queen, with the whole Court, went on board the Fleet, and was ſplendidly entertained at Dinner: There was afterwards a Ball, her Majeſty danced, and about Seven in the Evening ſhe retired to a Country-Seat in the Neighbourhood, belonging to the Counteſs of Douglas. Mr. Berkeley, Son of the Lord Berkeley of Stratton, ſet out Yeſterday from hence with the Lord Carteret's Letter to the Czar, offering His Britannick Majeſty's Mediation for making Peace between his Czariſh Majeſty and the Queen of Sweden.

Hague, Oct. 6. The Swediſh Miniſter here, has by Order from his Court, deſired in Form the Guarantie and Permiſſion of this State, for borrowing a Million of Crowns at ſix per Cent. offering as a Security for the Payment of that Sum with Intereſt, the Revenues of the Iſle of Gothland. The Muſcovite Ambaſſadour endeavours to hinder it, and preſented a Memorial to the States againſt it to Day.

The Paymaſter of the 1400000 l. Lottery, Anno 1714, gives Notice, that Money is reſerved in the Exchequer to diſcharge and pay off principal Money on all the ſtanding Orders to N° 41, and 30 l. in part of N° 42 in the 13th Courſe; and that he ſhall be ready to pay the ſame on Monday the 5th Inſtant, together with Intereſt on all the Orders in the ſaid Lottery due at Michaelmas laſt.
